Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (ITESM) is one of the most prominent education centers in Latin America and a UR exchange institution for study abroad. ITESM has been accredited by SACS since 1950. ITESM is located in Monterrey, a business and commercial center that is Mexico's third largest city. Monterrey has more colleges, universities and technology institutes than any other Mexican city.

This 8-week internship program will offer students the opportunity to work in community service or business.

Students must have a 2.5 GPA. Advanced Spanish skills are recommended but not required for business internships, and there are a limited number of English-language internships. Students should have an intermediate level of Spanish (2 years of Spanish which can include high school courses) for community service internships.

Placement areas include community service, business, engineering, and information technology.

What's Included

- .86 units
- Accommodations in on-campus residence halls
- Internship placement and supervision
